BHS LIFE FORWARD AWARD

BHS, with the support of Daiichi Sankyo, is pleased to announce a grant supporting a project aimed at improving the survivorship experience of individuals living beyond hematologic cancer treatment.

For this purpose, the BHS is organising a "Daiichi Sankyo" Award, called the Life Forward Award.

All information on rules and regulations (including the application form) are available on the BHS website.

The submission deadline is Monday, January 04th 2027 (midnight CET).

The "Life Forward Award" jury will select one or two winning projects based on their innovative character. The award will consist of a monetary grant of EUR 20,000 for one winning project, or two grants of EUR 10,000 each for two winning projects.

The winners will be personally informed before the 42nd BHS General Annual Meeting, February 12-13, 2027.

We are looking forward to receiving outstanding projects that can change the natural history of hematological diseases.

Sincerely,
Ann De Becker, President of the BHS
